

ALKAZI FOUNDATION FOR THE ARTS

February 10, 2019

Dear Mr. Shantaram,

Our organization has been alerted to an alleged harassment claim made against you anonymously via social media. While this claim is prior to your engagement with us, we are obliged to look into it, as we have a zero tolerance policy regarding sexual or any other kind of harassment or discrimination.

One of the allegations made against you falls within the purview of the policy of Sexual Harassment and the Code of Conduct followed by our organization. As per the protocol, a meeting with our advisory has been conducted to arrive at a decision about your work with our organization.

This letter may be treated as a warning that any subsequent complaint will be taken very seriously into consideration by our organization. Regardless, your grant will be reviewed once more before publication.

Sincerely,

Rahaab Allana

Curator, Alkazi Foundation for the Arts
